December 2009

BWC Ladies,

The Fall Extravaganza was a tremendous success! As of now, we have made $20,000. A special thanks to Sherry Bohorfoush, Liz Guess, and Janet Robertshaw for accepting the challenge of serving as chairmen for such a big undertaking. Their hard work, organizational skills, patience and personal talents helped lead us to success. A sincere thank you to all of our committee heads: The Bakery (thank you Mary Jo, Kathy and Carol), The Shop (thank you Susan, Desiree and Ruby), Cashiers (thank you Vickie), Corporate Tables (thank you Tammy), Reservations (thank you Frances and Debbie), Decorations (thank you Nina, Wendy, Laura and Julie), Fashion Show (thank you Joy), Raffle Tickets (thank you Ashley and Paula), Program (thank you Buffie) and EVERYONE in BWC that contributed in so many ways to make our biggest fund raiser of the year a huge success!

Thanks to Susan Vawter for opening her lovely home to BWC for our November meeting and to Mary Jo Angelo for the delicious food.

Hopefully everyone had a great Thanksgiving and is looking forward to the Christmas season. Don't forget the Mother-Daughter Tea is on Wednesday, December 23, from 2:00-4:00 p.m. at the home of Joy Deupree. All Ballet Women members are encouraged to attend and meet our debs and their mothers. There is not a meeting, but you will receive meeting credit should you attend. Our Debutante Poinsettia Ball is on Tuesday, December 29 at Vestavia Country Club with the Benefactor's Dinner also that evening, see your invitations for details. Hope you will plan to attend.

Please continue your support for the Alabama Ballet. I would like to encourage all BWC members to attend one performance of Alabama Ballet - THE REAL NUTCRACKER this holiday season. Performances are December 11-13 and 18-20 at Samford Wright Center. For tickets and more information call 975-2787 or www.alabamaballet.org.

As a reminder, we will not have a January meeting, but I hope to see you at the Mother-Daughter Tea or at the Poinsettia Ball.

Thank you for your support by serving with Ballet Women's Committee. I hope you have a blessed holiday season and a happy, healthy 2010.
