

The Official Newsletter of the Ballet Women's Committee

January 2009

Dear Ladies,

Happy New Year! I hope everyone had a wonderful holiday. Our Poinsettia Ball was held on December 29 and it was such a beautiful event. I have received so many complimentary comments. Tammy Towns did a fabulous job and Vestavia Country Club has never looked so pretty. Thank you so much to Tammy, Lisa Henley, Belinda Malke, Judy Campbell, Jean Hendrickson and all of the rest of the committee for a perfect evening. A lot of hard work was done to make everything just right for these debs. Thanks, too, to Nancy Kennedy for a fabulous Benefactor's Dinner. Thank you so much to all of the volunteers who helped make this event a huge success.

Thank you to Joy Deupree for hosting our Mother/Daughter Tea. Her home looked beautiful and I think the debs and their mothers enjoyed the event. Thanks to the Ball Board for providing the delicious food.

Our next meeting will be on February 5 at the home of Carolyn Howell. Please make plans to attend. Remember, you must attend three meetings or functions to be in good standing. Please be thinking about your friends who might be interested in joining our group. Leigh Ann Yeilding will begin taking applications for new members at the next meeting. See you in February!

Poinsettia Ball Board

If you are interested in serving on the Poinsettia Ball Board that will plan the Ball for next year, please submit your request to Melinda Helveston in writing. We will vote on four members from the general membership at the February meeting. Please refer to the bylaws in the directory for qualifications for one of these spots. We need new people to work on the ball. It is a lot of fun and very rewarding!

Did you know?????

Alabama Ballet Student Matinees are an opportunity for over 10,000 elementary and secondary school students to experience the beauty and joy of a full-length professional ballet production (often for the first time) at no charge. The 2009-2010 season marks the first time that all of Alabama Ballet's main-stage productions will feature a student matinee opportunity.
